

Figure 48. Landsat images. A - Hamelin Basin, Shark Bay, Australia. The embayment plain in the center of Hamelin Basin slopes from about 6 m depth in the south to 9 m in the north. B - Yalahau Lagoon, Yucatan, Mexico. Both lagoons are characterized by bioturbated muddy carbonate sediment.